

TAFI BEGINS INQUIRY INTO HALL MYSTERY

Worcester District Attorney
Plans Informal Inquest Into
Mrs. Hall's Death.

RELATIVES IN CONFERENCE

WORCESTER, May 5.—After a conference with relatives and others concerned in the mysterious death of Mrs. Attie Hall, who expired fifteen minutes after drinking a glass of porter on February 28 at her home, No. 408 Tara avenue, District Attorney George R. Taft has decided to hold an informal inquest which may result in examining the body now buried in South Londonderry, Vt., and an analysis of the organs to determine their condition at the time of death.

Among those who stand ready to furnish information to District Attorney Taft are wealthy and influential residents of the fashionable section who had particular knowledge of the environment of Mrs. Hall and who vigorously declare that the case should be fully investigated.

Attorney Harrison Bowker, acting for the family of the late Mrs. Hall, values the District Attorney's office yesterday and yesterday forenoon a list of witnesses who may be called.

No Investigation Made

It appeared in the course of the inquiry that to official view of the remains was not made and that a death certificate was given and accepted upon the presentation of a physician's certificate called upon by the coroner.

Edward H. Bowler, No. 10 Russell street, Worcester, said last evening that he was not present at the funeral and that he was not present at the funeral and that he was not present at the funeral.

TO SEE MURKIN AT PRATT'S SANITARIUM

MYSTERY OF THE MISSING BROKER'S WHEREABOUTS SOON TO BE CLEARED.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The mystery concerning the exact whereabouts of T. A. McIntyre, head of the big McIntyre brokerage house which recently failed for $1,500,000, is expected to be disclosed today when Receiver Birmingham and Attorney Grant, the receiver's counsel, will be taken by McIntyre's lawyer, Maurice Ross, to the private sanitarium where McIntyre has been in retreat since his return last Thursday from the South.

McIntyre went South. At the time of the crash McIntyre promptly left the city for Charleston, S. C., where he has a summer home. He was accompanied by a creditor, Mr. Hixson, who was given out, through his lawyer as usual, that he was a very sick man. He came back from Charleston last Thursday night, but was immediately taken to the sanitarium. McIntyre is expected to be in the sanitarium until he is given up in giving up the name of the sanitarium, but that his address would be given to any having a right to see him.

At the continued hearing yesterday before United States Judge McKim, Attorney Ross finally conceded that McIntyre had been in the sanitarium and the creditors have been gradually dwindling.

The latest check to the creditors is the revelation that the wanted millions of McIntyre's estate. McIntyre was a very sick man, according to Hixson's lawyer. Hixson was the one partner in the McIntyre concern to whom the creditors have looked to make good their losses.

Hixson on the Witness Stand. He was put on the witness stand yesterday by Receiver Birmingham, and was questioned by Attorney Ross.

REPORTS ON COLLAPSE OF DEFUNCT FIRMS

In a preliminary report filed with Judge Dwyer of the United States Court today, J. Edgar P. Proctor, Jr., who was appointed receiver for the William A. McGraw Company, the Ford Motors Company and William A. McGraw, individually, all of these parties dated business at No. 62 South street, states that he finds that most of the property of the defunct companies is in the hands of other owners, both in this country and in England, and also suggests to the court the various steps which these firms are now working under should be allowed to continue.

The firms which hold property of the defunct companies are Brown Brothers & Co., American Trust Company, Alfred J. White Company, Federal Trust Company and the First National Bank, all of Boston; Harding Brothers & Co., of London; England; and P. C. Harlan & Co., of New York, Waterman & Sons of New York and Philadelphia, and Judge Dwyer took the matter under advisement.

3 DEAD IN FIERCE STORM IN ILLINOIS

Creates Havoc in District Near East St. Louis.

FRENCH VILLAGE, Ill., May 3.—Three dead, a dozen persons missing and twenty homes wrecked tell the story today of a fierce cyclone, followed by a destructive cloudburst, which swept down upon this section shortly after midnight.

The three men, two of whom were the conductor and engineer, were drowned in twenty feet of water beneath the wreck of a Louisville & Nashville passenger train which was overturned in a washout at French Village, half way between East St. Louis and Edgemoor, as a result of the cloudburst.

The cyclone bore down upon the village with a roar that could be heard for a mile. The wind seemed to last but a moment when it was followed by a destructive downpour of water, the equal of which was never before experienced in this section of the State.

The road was the focus of the water, which was light in the village was quenched and the water was left in total blinding from their house, which was blown down by the water.

When daylight dawned, the scene was a desolate appearance. In the few miles of road, wind and clouds were in the air, and the water was in the air.

SCOUTS' RISE

Old Way Street Building Declared Dangerous by School Board Members.

PUPILS' HEALTH MENACED

That the old Way street schoolhouse in the Quincy district, South End, stands condemned in the unanimous opinion of the school committee, and that the health of its 150 pupils is daily menaced was stated today by School Commissioners James P. Maguire in a Bostonian editorial.

Mr. Maguire roundly denounced the old Way street school before the board last night, and was seconded by Dr. Joseph P. Maguire, another member of the board, who also denounced the school, and who would rather shelve a law of the Commonwealth than order the closing of the building.

Building Is Unhealthy.
"The old Way street schoolhouse is highly unhealthy, and not a scholar should be housed there," said Attorney Maguire. "I have investigated the condition of the school, and I am convinced that the health of the children is being menaced."

"It is situated right near the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad tracks, and the air is polluted by the smoke of the locomotives passing by. The school is situated in a narrow alley, and the air is polluted by the smoke of the houses on either side of the alley."

"The children are crowded together in the school, and the air is polluted by the smoke of the houses on either side of the alley. The children are crowded together in the school, and the air is polluted by the smoke of the houses on either side of the alley."

DR. RILEY ASKS AN INJUNCTION AGAINST PEIRCE

Head of Bay State Road Hospital Asks Petition for an Accounting.

TROUBLE OVER MORTGAGE

Dr. Elizabeth A. Riley, who conducts one of the best known private hospitals of Boston at No. 210 Bay State road, Bay Road, petitioned the Superior Court, equity session today, for an injunction against Edward Peirce, Jr., secretary of the hospital, to prevent him from transferring a mortgage of $50,000 on the Bay State road property, and also for an accounting from Peirce. Judge Richardson issued an order of staying the matter on Friday.

In her petition Dr. Riley tells of buying the property on December 24, 1906, through Peirce, who, she says, had for some time been endeavoring to lease the property, but without success. The contract was the Massachusetts Hospital Life Insurance Company. Peirce, she says, agreed to take $50,000 in the mortgage, and she paid $50,000. She says she gave Peirce a check for $50,000, and she says she gave Peirce a check for $50,000.

But on Monday, May 4, Dr. Riley says, she suddenly became aware of the alleged fact that the mortgage was for only $25,000.

Dr. Riley says that she has paid several charges on account of the mortgage, and she says that she has paid several charges on account of the mortgage, and she says that she has paid several charges on account of the mortgage.

CHOPSTICKS IN A BOTTLE OF CHAMPAGNE

Biggest Aircraft Ever Built in America "Launched" at North Adams.

NAMED "THE CONQUEROR"

Special to the Boston American. NORTH ADAMS, May 5.—A Holland Forster's new balloon, The Conqueror, the largest ever built in this country, was successfully "launched" here today after it had been constructed with a bottle of champagne by the owner's twelve-year-old daughter, Miss Natalie Forster.

This is the first time that a balloon was ever formally christened in America. The ceremony took place with all the formality of the launching of a battleship, only the aerial craft shot upward after the champagne bottle was thrown, instead of sliding down the ways into the blue ocean, as a marine craft does.

The balloons with Mr. Forster and part of the crew headed toward the Atlantic coast. A Holland Forster is a New York city man, and a resident of North Adams, the owner of the Aero Club of North Adams, and the Aero Club of North Adams.

Today's Lesson in The American's Course for Salespeople

Copyright, 1908, by American Journal Examines

The last lesson in this course touched upon the starting of a sale. It applied more especially to the mistake of starting a sale by showing TOO CHEAP MERCHANDISE.

The same error can be made the other way, all of these instances being applicable, of course, to cases when a customer does not ask for a definite article in stock at an exact price.

For instance: A customer comes into a lace store (laces are merely taken as an example, the same idea holds good in any other stock where the prices range from low to high) and asks for a lace to finish a coat with.

The saleswoman immediately assumes a superior air and shows some expensive lace, dilating upon its beauty and fashionable qualities. It happens that this particular lace is away above the customer's reach in price.

But the saleswoman, overestimating her sell high priced goods and feeling her superiority in having so elegant goods at her command to show, MAKES TOO MUCH of the high class of her merchandise.

Finally, when she does condescend to show more moderate priced laces, they suffer in comparison with the fine ones first shown and the customer goes elsewhere.

Use judgment in approaching a sale and find out in a QUIET WAY just about where the customer's price limit is.

BY DYKE CLARK.

It's a farewell event for the Dodgers this afternoon when they meet the Athletics in the last game of the South East series for a month.

Whether it is today's match, though it will be no play in action, as the visitors are not to be satisfied until they get an even result in the series, or the fact that Manager McGraw has told back his trump card, the Athletics, to be better, the Dodgers may display all or give his manager Bill a opportunity to make a last impression on the crowd when they are facing the Athletics.

The Dodgers have all the best of it if the Athletics are to be the victors, and he has not had his chance to work against the Athletics. He is in great form to do some interesting and should do a good job.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

It was great pitching by Turner, and he was really a rock, passing but one man.

Harry Lundy was the only Dodger who was not out. Turner, however, was out when and a hat by knocking the ball over the right fence and was responsible for the

FIFTY-FOUR HORSES IN SPEEDWAY RACES TODAY

For the second of the racing series of matinees, under the auspices of the Metropolitan Driving Club, at Charles River Speedway today have been received fifty-four horses, and the classification given the trainers and owners by the race committee assures that the racing will be closely contested.

Class 2, 2000, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

It is necessary that was the case in the time the two had last week.

There are two five-horse races scheduled and four four-horse races. Three events are bound to be hard and head races from the word bill the wire has been reached.

Following are the entries:

CLASS A. TROTTING.
 Ben Johnson, 2:10, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

CLASS B. PACING.
 Ben Johnson, 2:10, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

CLASS C. TROTTING.
 Ben Johnson, 2:10, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

CLASS D. TROTTING.
 Ben Johnson, 2:10, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

CLASS E. TROTTING.
 Ben Johnson, 2:10, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

CLASS F. PACING.
 Ben Johnson, 2:10, and Tom Blair, 2:14, will meet again, and Isaac Nathan, owner of the latter, believes that his star will be in the race to win.

CLASS G. TROTTING.

JOE CORBETT BACK IN BOX FOR DENVER

DENVER, May 5.—Joe Corbett, a brother of James J. Corbett, who pitched the Baltimore team into the championship of the National League, and then retired from baseball because he and Manager Ed Hanlon could not agree on terms, will start with the Denver Western League team. He has been taking special care of himself. At present he is engaged in business in San Francisco, but Denver has secured him to join Denver about June 10.
